THE DAILY PROGRESS.

VOL. VI. RALEIGH, MONDAY, OCT. 9, 1865. NO. 279.

STATE CONVENTION.

SATURDAY, Oct. 7th, 1865.

The Convention met at 12 o'clock, A. M.

Prayer by Rev. T. E. Skinner of the Baptist church.

The Journal was read and approved.

Messrs. McCleese, Williams and Johnston recorded their votes in favor of the passage of the Ordinance nullifying the secession ordinance, passed yesterday.

ORDINANCES AND RESOLUTIONS.

Mr. Nicholson, a resolution in regard to the organization of the militia.

Mr. Love, a resolution of thanks to Messrs. Brunton & Ferrar of Raleigh, for a beautiful map of the State presented by them to the convention. The rules were suspended, and the resolution adopted.

Mr. McLean, an ordinance abolishing slavery in the State.

Mr. Starbuck, an ordinance to protect the Freedmen from the evils of intemperance. Levies a tax equal to that on 200 acres of land, on each gallon of spirituous liquors brought into the State.

Mr. Faulkner, an ordinance exempting from execution a homestead for each family.

Mr. Jones, of Henderson, a resolution enquiring as to the propriety of limiting the number of Justices and of electing them by the vote of the people.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

Mr. Conigland's resolution enquiring of the Governor the specie value of the bonds and notes of the State at the time when issued, was taken up, and after some debate was, on motion of Mr. Donnell, laid on the table.

Mr. Settle, an ordinance recognising the just debt of the State, and forbidding the assumption of any debt contracted in aid of the late rebellion.

Mr. McCoy, a resolution expressive of the earnest desire of the Convention and the people of the State to return speedily to their proper relations to the federal Union.

The resolution enquiring of the Governor information in regard to the State debt was taken up and lost.

The resolution to order an election of municipal officers at an early day was read.

Mr Jones, of Rowan, moved a substitute, instructing the Governor to order said elections under laws existing before 1861.

Mr. Phillips said this Convention had no power over the Provisional Governor, as he was an officer of the United States. On his motion the resolution was laid on the table.

The ordinance to repeal the ordinance of secession was on motion of Mr. Jones of Rowan, who presented it, laid on the table.

The resolution introduced by Mr. Love to abolish slavery, provide for the election of a Lieut. Governor, &c., was read and referred to the committee on the revision of the constitution.

Mr. Caldwell, of Burke, from the committee on enrolment, presented the enrolled ordinance, "to declare null and void, the ordinance of the 20th of May, 1861" and the "in regard to the authentication of ordinances and other acts of the Convention," for ratification by the President.

The ordinance prohibiting slavery or involuntary servitude except for crime was read as follows:

AN ORDINANCE PROHIBITING SLAVERY IN THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

Be it declared and ordained by the Delegates of the State of North Carolina, in Convention assembled, and it is hereby declared and ordained, That slavery and involuntary servitude, otherwise than for crimes whereof the parties shall have been convicted, shall be, and is hereby forever prohibited within the State.

Mr. Odom presented a substitute declaring that slavery having been destroyed, "it is hereby abolished,

Mr. Odom said that he considered the abolition of slavery necessary, as did the government, to readmission to the Union, but he thought it proper to express the cause of that abolition.

Mr. Settle said that the ordinance presented by him was "pure and simple," that qualification so much debated here. He did not think it proper to insert in the constitution the historical fact that the institution of slavery had been destroyed by the war. It would be only as germane to the subject to go into a full commentary on the history of the times, and state that secession dealt the fatal blow to slavery.

Mr. Smith moved to amend the amendment by inserting so that the 1st clause would read "whereas the institution of slavery has been destroyed by the secessionists."

Mr. Donnell called for the yeas and nays. Mr. Smith withdrew his amendment.

Mr. Brown said he would vote for the ordinance as presented by Mr. Settle. It was true that secession had destroyed slavery. He wished the action of this body to be that of an independent State, and not have the appearance of acting under duress.

Mr. Faison moved to strike out the word "forever."

Mr. Donnell called for the yeas and nays.

Mr. Odom's substitute was then voted down and the yeas and nays being called, on motion of Mr. Warren, the ordinance passed its second reading unanimously.

Those who voted in the affirmative were Messrs. Adams, Alexander, Baines, Baker, Barrow, Beam, Bell, Berry, Bingham, Boyden, Bradley, Brickell, Brown, Brooks, Bryan, Burgin, Buxton, Bynum, Caldwell, of Burke, Caldwell, of Guilford, Clark, Conigland, Dick, Dickey, Dockery, Donnell, Eaton, Ellis, Faircloth, Faison, Faulkner, Forshee, Purches, Gahagan, Garland, Gardner, Gilliam, Godwin, Grissom, Harris, of Guilford, Harris, of Rutherford, Haynes, Henrahan, Henry, Hodge, Howard; Jackson, Jarvis, Johnston, Jones, of Cumberland, Jones, of Davidson, Jones, of Henderson, Jones, of Rowan, Joyner, Kelly, Kennedy, King, Lash, Lassiter, Love, of Chatham, Love, of Jackson, Lyon, Manly, Manley, McCleese, McCorkle, McDonald, of Chatham, McDonald, of Moore, McGehee, McIver, McKay, McA. McLean, Nat. McLean, McLaughlin, McRae, Mebane, Moore, of Chatham, Moore, of Wake, Murphy, Nicholson, Norfleet, Odom, Patterson, Perkins, Phillips, Polk, Pool, Reade, Rumley, Russell, Rush, Saunders, Settle, Sloan, Smith, of Anson, Smith, of Johnston, Smith, of Wilkes, Spencer, of Hyde, Spencer, of Montgomery, Starbuck, Stephenson, Stewart Stubbs, Swan, Thompson, Walkup, Ward, Warren, Willey, Williams, Winburne, Winston, Wright.

The rules were suspended and the ordinance passed its final reading.

The Ordinance providing for the election of members of Congress and the General Assembly was taken up.

Mr. Moore presented as an additional section a proposition for the election of Governor, together with other amendments, which were agreed to.

Mr. McKay, an amendment fixing the third Thursday in November, as the day of election, the legislature to convene on the 1st Monday in December.

Mr. Donnell opposed the amendment on the ground that the legislature should meet in time to elect Senators by the time of the assembling of Congress.

Mr. McKay said that sufficient time should be given candidates for the Legislature to explain their views, so that the people might vote understandingly.

Mr. Caldwell moved to lay over the whole matter, but withdrew it.

Mr. Winston opposed the amendment and favored the ordinance.

Mr McKay changed his motion by substituting the "second Thursday in November," for the "first Thursday." Agreed to.

Mr. Bynum presented an amendment abolishing the property qualification of members of the General Assembly. Messrs. Moore and Pool opposed the amendment.

The amendment was voted down.

Mr. Burton moved to amend by requiring the election to be held under laws existing prior to 1861.

Mr. Buxton said he did not think it the province of the Convention to prescribe the qualification of voters.

Mr. Winston said the proposed amendment was in violation of the plan of reconstruction prescribed by the government.

The ordinance as amended passed its final reading under a suspension of the rules.

The ordinance as passed is as follows:

AN ORDINANCE PROVIDING FOR THE ELECTION OF THE MEMBERS OF A GENERAL ASSEMBLY, TO BE CONVENED ON THE SECOND MONDAY OF NOVEMBER, 1865, AND FOR ELECTING REPRESENTATIVES IN CONGRESS.

Be it ordained by the delegates of the people of the State of North Carolina, in Convention assembled, and it is hereby ordained by the authority of the same, That a General Assembly of the State shall be convened on the third Monday of November 1865, the members whereof shall hold their places till the next election of such members, which shall be held on the first Thursday of August, 1866.

2. Be it further ordained, That the Provisional Governor is hereby directed to issue forthwith to the sheriff of each county, a writ directing that an election to hold by the Senators and members of the House of Commons of such General Assembly, on the second Thursday of November next, under the rules, regulations and provisions of chapter fifty-two of the Revised Code.

3. Be it further ordained, That immediately on the receipt of the writ, each Sheriff shall summon the Justices of the Peace of the County of Pleas and Quarter Sessions to assemble at the Court House, on a day appointed by him, which shall be as early as practicable, and they, or as many as may assemble, shall appoint inspectors for each place of election, who shall be forthwith notified of their appointment by the Sheriff, and they shall annex the returns, and make returns of the polls, in the manner prescribed in said chapter.

4. Be it further ordained, That the Sheriff or Sheriffs shall preside at the polling of the elections; and grant certificates to those elected, as provided in said chapter.

5. Be it further ordained, That each member and voter shall be qualified, according to the now existing constitution of the State: Provided, however, That no one shall be eligible to a seat, or be capable of voting, who, being free in all respects, shall not, before the 20th day of May, 1865, either have voluntarily taken and subscribed the oath of amnesty prescribed in the proclamations of President Lincoln, with the purpose to suppress the insurrection and restore the authority of the United States, and faithfully shall have observed the same; or shall not have taken and subscribed the oath of amnesty prescribed in the proclamation of President Johnson, bearing date 29th day of May, 1865; and who, moreover, shall not in either case be of those who are excepted from the amnesty granted by any of the said proclamations unless pardoned: But, provided also, That all persons who may have preferred petitions for pardon, if the fact of being pardoned shall be announced by the Governor, although the pardon may not have been received.

6. Be it further ordained, That for the purpose of ascertaining the qualifications of persons proposing to vote, the inspectors may, and it shall be their duty, whenever the voter may be challenged, or they shall have cause to suspect that he is not duly qualified, examine him and others, on oath, touching the question.

7. Be it further ordained, That at the same time and places, elections shall be held for seven Representatives in the Congress of the United States, in pursuance of chapter sixty-nine of the Revised Code, which shall be conducted under the rules and regulations therein prescribed for such elections, and the voters in said elections shall be such only as shall be qualified to vote for members of the House of Commons, and the Provisional Governor shall give the certificate required by the ninth section of said chapter.

Several new sections provide that an election for Governor shall be held at the same time and places, who shall take his seat on the close of the Provisional Governor's term, and hold his office till Jan'y 1, 1867.

The resolution of Mr. Allen in regard to the residence, age, and property qualification, was referred to the Committee on Constitutional amendment.

Resolutions enquiring the value of State property and the expediency of appropriating it to the payment of taxes due by citizens to the United States, were agreed to.

Resolutions endorsing the administration of President Johnson and Governor Holden were, on motion of Mr. Ellis, referred to a special committee of five Resolutions in relation to private debts were referred to a special committee.

On motion the Convention adjourned to Monday, 11 o'clock.

From New Orleans.

A dispatch from New Orleans, Oct. 3rd, gives us the following information:

The democratic convention has organized and adopted a platform emphatically approving President Johnson's reorganization policy; excluding from the field of politics all religious and sectional controversies, holding that this Government was made and is to be perpetuated for the exclusive political benefit of the white race; recommending the calling of a Convention to adopt a constitution expressive of the will of the people; asking Congress for compensation for losses sustained by the emancipation policy, adverting to the repeal of acts and laws in conflict with the Constitution and laws.

The General Government is earnestly appealed to for a general amnesty and the prompt restoration of property, and the Convention invites all citizens, without distinction of nationality, to join them in opposition to the Radical Republican party. Twenty-seven Parishes were represented in the Convention.

The convention nominated J. M. Wells for Governor, and H. A. P. Perhus for Lieutenant-Governor, and adjourned sine die.

"Duke" Gwin and Ex-Gov. Clark, of Mississippi, have gone up the river under guard for Washington.

Shreveport advices of the 30th Sept., say that cotton is still coming in, and bringing full prices. The sales of the week were heavier than any time before since the revival of trade.

Sensational.

A Philadelphia despatch, October 4th, says:

It is established beyond a doubt that in conversation with a distinguished Illinoisan a few days since, Lieut-Gen. Grant so far varied from his customary reticence on public topics as to unreservedly express himself on the Mexican question.

He declares that the Government will vindicate the Monroe doctrine at an early day, and that Maximilian must leave Mexico. It will be, he says, less expensive to rid Mexico of the presence of an enemy than to guard our borders against him.

It is his opinion that it will require no call for troops, but that with our present army we can spare enough to give effectiveness to the forces Mexico will be ready to put in the field, if our Government aids them in the matter of supplies.

Gen. Grant is of the opinion that the President and the authorities at Washington hold this as a settled purpose, and only await the meeting of Congress to take open ground in the matter. It is not believed that France will be able to disregard European complications, present and prospective, so as to make the cause of Maximilian her own. This solution of the Mexican question must be accepted as one of the forthcoming sensations for the close of the year.

SOUTHERN DUTY.—The Salisbury Banner holds the following just and sensible language respecting the duty of the people of the South:

It seems to us the duty of Southern citizens is plain and unmistakable.

To submit with fortitude to the fate of war—to accept the situation and to strive earnestly, honestly and cordially to reunite the broken fragments and re-build the fabric they had endeavored to pull down. Can it derogate from the character of even the warmest Southerner to act in such way as to restore as far as practicable, peace, repose and happiness to our distracted country? Surely not. Honor does not forbid, but honor and duty alike demand that we should strive with all the power of our nature to inculcate the sentiment that the hope we cherish is gone forever and that we can have a great and glorious country yet. We are now as it were in a chrysalis state, just emerging from the shock of a mighty revolution and we cannot expect to have everything just as we wish. Military rule is, of course exacting—necessarily so, but in the main it is just, and in many cases more lenient than the civil—and so far as this community is concerned with such excellent officers as we have had, no one can justly complain.

—The State election took place in Mississippi on Monday. The vote was very close between Gen. Humphries and Judge Fisher, but the latter is probably chosen Governor. The Legislature will meet on the 16th inst.

—Ex-Governor Brown, of Georgia, intends to make his permanent residence at Atlanta.

—John Forney has written a letter in which he favors negro suffrage in this country, based on the qualification of their being able to read and write.

THE CITY.

To Printers.

Two or three good Compositors, if steady men, can get employment at the Progress Office. None but steady men and good workmen wanted.

EDUCATIONAL.—We published a day or two since the admirable letter of Rev. C. H. Wiley on the subject of our common school system. We are glad to learn that Mr. Wm. P. Mangum, agent of the American Union educational association for North Carolina is in the city to confer with Mr. W. and offer such assistance in the premises as the society can afford. The circulation of the circulation which Mr. B. represents are quite benevolent, one of which is to educate into and supply the wants of the country in the way of facilities for educating the young and rising generation.

There is large necessity for co-operation among all the friends of education in perpetuating popular mental development by a system of district schools and we hope Raleigh will not lag in the race. We see that Newbern has set a noble example in opening, in its corporate capacity, a free school. It is worthy of imitation by every city, town and county in the State. Let us move in the same direction speedily as possible.

SINGULAR EMOTION.—The following, written in elegant business hand, was inscribed on the back of a five dollar bill lately received in New York from North Carolina:

"Here is a $5 bill which I intend to toss out of my window, in Norfolk, as soon as I have written this. I am no lover of money, I hate it most cordially, for it has been the ruin of all my family.—I will beg from door to door eternally rather than own another cent one hour. It made my grandfather a suicide, my mother the victim of a sorrow that sunk her early to the grave, my brother a gambler, and myself a convict in the State prison four years."

We believe Raleigh to have no responsibility for such rashness. If there is any person in the corporate limits willing to throw away a V, or profess such loyalty to poverty, we have failed to meet such independence.

THE TAX ON DEALERS.—The recent decision of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, that brokers who buy and sell for others on commission are dealers, and liable to pay the same tax as merchants, will probably destroy the business of a very useful class, who, for a small commission, say one half of one per cent., make purchases and sales of iron, groceries, oil, cotton, etc. They cannot afford to pay the same tax that a regular dealer in drugs, hardware, groceries, etc, could, as the profits are materially different. We think the true definition of a dealer is one who buys and sells on his account and at his own risk.

FEAST OF THE TABERNACLE.—The days of fasting and penitence having passed with our Israelitish friends, a season of joy and thanksgiving was inaugurated by them last Wednesday evening, the 5th of October, which date this year corresponds with the 14th of Tishri. This festival is the "feast of the tabernacles" or "Succos," which lasts nine days, in accordance with the divine commandment found in Leviticus xxiii.

NOT SO BAD.—The difficulty between Mr. Henry Cook and an individual named Johnson, mentioned in Saturday's issue, was not so serious in results as first accounts represented. Neither of the parties were dangerously wounded, much less killed, and it was the latter, not the former, who used the stone, knocking C. off his horse, we understand. What circumstance produced the collision we do not know. At all events both are alive and we presume not in a dangerous condition.

CORPORATION PROCEEDINGS—RALEIGH, OCT. 6.—At a special meeting of the Board of Commissioners, held this evening, present: C. B. Root, Esq., Mayor pro tem, Messrs. C. M. Farriss, A. Creech, J. J. Overby, P. Overby and Dr. W. H. McKee, Commissioners.

The committee appointed at the last meeting to audit and settle the accounts of the late City Treasurer, reported that they find remaining in the hands of the Treasurer the sum of one hundred and ninety one (191) dollars, which report was received and the committee discharged.

On motion of Mr. J. J. Overby, the late Treasurer was allowed one hundred dollars for his services.

Messrs. J. A. Barham, City Auctioneer; C. M. Farriss, City Treasurer, and W. C. Emery, keeper of City Pumps, tendered their respective bonds, which were received.

The committee appointed to lay off the burial ground for persons of color, reported that they had laid off about two acres near the State quarry.

On motion, the Treasurer was authorized to borrow $3,500 for the use of the city.

On motion, the Board adjourned.

J. J. CHRISTOPHER, Clerk.

THE SABBATH—yesterday—passed off with a remarkable absence of noise and confusion. All the houses of worship were very well attended. At the M. E. church, Rev. N. F. Reed preached a sermon of marked eloquence and power.

PERSONAL.—Hon. Charles R. Train, who is said to be a candidate for the clerkship of the National House of Representatives, is in this city, and stopping at the Exchange hotel.

A. KLINE & Co., nearly opposite the Progress office, have in store a very complete stock of Ready-made Clothing. See their advertisement and then go and look for yourselves.

W. H. PISOR, who has fine facilities for prosecuting this trade, will have of the market morning and evening, fresh fish in endless variety. Billiam High, colored, will vend them to lovers of the finny tribe.

A. & N. C. RAILROAD.—The Directory of this company are to meet in the city this evening. We are glad to learn that the road is about to be turned over to the management of the company and we have no doubt but that it will be operated with energy and ability.

READ THEM—we mean the new advertisements which appear this morning.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

In the year 1865, the writer embarked in the Drug Business in the city of Philadelphia, and while thus engaged, made several experiments in regard to the most desirable mode of preparing Fluid Extracts. My efforts being successful—the articles being approved and used by the medical faculty—I was desirous of placing them before the public, but hesitated for some time before concluding to resort to newspaper advertising, knowing of the prejudices that existed in the minds of many against using advertised Medicines or Nostrums, but through the advice of friends and those who had used them this objection was overcome.

After 18 years' exertions, commencing in a small way, the popularity of my articles has extended to all parts of the United States, and widely throughout foreign countries—and this in the face of much opposition.—Every means has been resorted to by unprincipled dealers since their merit and success have been known—such as advertising large bottles at less price, counterfeiting all other preparations, and even copying my advertisements—but I am happy to state that out of the many who have resorted to this, none have been successful.

MY OBJECT

in this notice is to make facts known to the public and respectable dealers, believing, after so many years' exertions, that the Druggists will discountenance such proceedings, and that the reputation of my articles may not be damaged by the use of inferior or spurious ones.

Knowing that many may read this article who are unacquainted with me, I append a few remarks from those of my native city, and whose names are known in all parts of the world:

"Being personally acquainted with Mr. H. T. Helmbold, it affords me pleasure in stating I have been most favorably impressed with his energy and integrity, and gratified at his success." WM. WRIGHTMAN,
Firm of Powers & Weightman,
Ninth and Brown Streets, Philadelphia.

[Evening Bulletin, Philadelphia.]

"When on a visit to the city of New York, a few days since, I was induced to call on our old friend and townsman, Mr. H. T. Helmbold, Druggist, 594 Broadway, N. Y. His store is a model—a perfect gem—the handsomest of any kind we have ever had the pleasure of viewing, and so extensive, being 24 feet front, five stories in height, and over 200 feet deep. It indeed affords us much pleasure to know that he has been so successful and it is ample evidence of the merits of his articles—as in our whole business experience we have not known of the success of any articles without much advertising merely bringing the name before the people."

[Boston Herald.]

"We do not like to advertise worthless wares, or articles calculated to deceive our readers; and when we see an advertiser like Mr. Helmbold, whom we have known for years, gradually extend his advertising from year to year until he becomes the largest advertiser in the United States, we are satisfied that the statements in regard to his articles must be correct."

The writer reluctantly inserts the above, and would not do so were he not a stranger to many; and considers by stating the names of his articles, and the diseases for which they have been used by many thousands with complete success.

DAILY PROGRESS.

RALEIGH, N. C.

MONDAY, OCT. 9, 1865.

The State Convention.

This body did a good day's work on Saturday, as will be seen from the proceedings elsewhere in this paper.

The Convention passed an ordinance by a unanimous vote declaring slavery forever abolished in North Carolina. An attempt was made by the representatives of a class of people that die hard on this question, to amend, strike out, &c., so as to have the ordinance go to the world embodying and expressing their peculiar views, but the body had no disposition to accommodate the sensibilities of such persons, and the ordinance as originally presented was passed. The secession supporters of Breckenridge commenced the abolition of slavery in North Carolina, by their disunion agitation in 1860, and the State Convention finished the job on Saturday: and for the good of posterity as well as for the sake of the present generation, we thank God that it is finished. We wish it had been done before the first drop of blood was shed in a war on the government under the pretext of protecting the institution. We don't know what the future of the colored race will be in this country, but we had rather they had been freed a thousand times than that six hundred thousand of the white men of the Southern States should have been killed and maimed in a war about them.

The Convention passed another important ordinance on Saturday, which calls an election for Governor, members of the Legislature and members of Congress, on the second Thursday in November, it being the 9th of the month. This is rushing the thing a little, we conceive, and we think two more weeks might have been given, but we are not disposed to complain at the Convention for we think the shorter their session the better, so the business is well done, and the sooner the elections which are to precede reconstruction are all over the better for the State and country. We suppose the work will be finished up so the body can adjourn by Saturday.

The election is only a month off, and there will be but little time for the disaffected to organize their forces. There are many in and out of the Convention that are anxious that Gov. Holden should have apposition, but the flank movements against them have been so rapid, and so admirably executed, that the present indications are that they will make no attempt to secure the offices and the spoils now, and that Gov. Holden will be allowed to walk over the course alone. It is best for the State and the people that he should have no opposition, for any attempt by the disaffected to beat him, and put in one of their own number, will seriously impair our chances of readmission to the Union.

The First Fruits—Secession Declared Null and Void.

The following ordinance declaring against the heresy of secession was passed on Friday. The real test vote on the ordinance was had on its second reading, when the vote stood 105 to 9:

AN ORDINANCE DECLARING NULL AND VOID THE ORDINANCE OF MAY 20, 1861.

Be it declared and ordained by the delegates of the good people of the State of North Carolina in Convention assembled, and it is hereby declared and ordained, That the ordinance of the Convention of the State of North Carolina, ratified on the 21st day of November, 1789, which adopted and ratified the Constitution of the United States, and also all acts and parts of acts of the General Assembly ratifying and adopting amendments to the said Constitution, are now, and at all times since the adoption and ratification thereof have been, in full force and effect, notwithstanding the supposed Ordinance of the 20th day of May, 1861, declaring the same to be repealed, rescinded and abrogated, and the said supposed ordinance is now, and at all times hath been, null and void.

The vote on the second reading was as follows:

In the affirmative, Messrs. Adams, Alexander, Baines, Barrow, Beam, Bell, Berry, Bingham, Boyden, Bradley, Brickell, Brown, Brooks, Bryan, Burgin, Buxton, Bynum, Caldwell, of Burke, Caldwell, of Guilford, Clark, Conigland, Cowper, Dickey, Dockery, Donnell, Eaton, Ellis, Faircloth, Faulkner, Forbes, Gahagan, Garland, Garrett, Gilliam, Godwin, Grissom, Henry, Hodge, Jackson, Jarvis, Jones, of Columbus, Jones, of Davidson, Jones, of Henderson, Jones, of Rowan, Joyce, Kelly, Kennedy, King, Lash, Logan, Love, of Chatham, Love, of Jackson, Lyon, McCauley, McCorkle, McDonald, of Chatham, McDonald, of Moore, McGehee, McIvor, McKay, N. A. McLean, Nat. McLean, McLaughlin, McRae, Mebane, Moore, of Chatham, Moore, of Wake, Nicholson, Norfleet, Odom, Patterson, Perkins, Harris, of Guilford, Harris, of Rutherford, Haynes, Hearnhan, Phillips, Polk, Pool, Reade, Rumley, Russell, Rush, Saunders, Settle, Simmons, Sloan, Smith, of Anson, Smith, of Johnston, Smith, of Wilkes, Spencer, of Hyde, Spencer, of Montgomery, Starbuck, Stephenson, Stewart, Stubbs, Swan, Thompson, Walkup, Warren, Willey, Winburne, Winston and Wright—105.

In the negative, Messrs. Allen, Faison, Forebee Howard, Joyner, Manly, McCoy, Murphy and Wood.—9.

The rules were then suspended and the ordinance passed its third reading by acclamation.

So the Convention has declared that there has been no secession, but that the State has all the time been in the Union.

Now we trust the work that remains will be disposed of as soon possible, so that the body may adjourn, and let the elections for members of Congress, the Legislature and Governor come off.

We regret to hear that there is a general impression that the Convention is to adjourn to meet again at some future day. The Conventions of the other States have performed their work and adjourned sine die, and we can see no reason why we should have a perpetual body here. We had enough of this in 1861. If the State fails to get back in the Union in December, it will never get in by anything this body can do—a new election and another Convention will be necessary, and will be demanded. We trust the present body will so perfect its work that the government will not hesitate to receive us; but we do not look on the admission of the State as certain by any means.

There were long and interesting debates on the above ordinance, in which the strength, feeling and complexion of the body was pretty fully developed, and we hope the remaining business will be done without much talking. The expense of the Convention to the State, when we consider that there is not a dollar in the Treasury and no way to get one but by direct taxation or by borrowing, is a matter of some consequence, and a long session will cause general complaint as well as dissatisfaction.

So far, everything seems to move pretty well, and we are hopeful for the future.

The Late Election.

The New York Times, in noticing the late election in this State, says:

"It seems, after all, that the result of the North Carolina election is not an overwhelming Union triumph. In many localities the partisans of Davis and Vance were elected over Union candidates. In Yadkin County, Chief Justice Pearson, a radical Union man, was defeated by a reconstructed secessionist. In Wake County, Mr. J. L. Pennington, the editor of the Progress, strongly Union, received but 510 votes in a poll of 2,800."

We take no pleasure in recurring to this matter, but we can safely say to the Times and the people of the North, that in many localities the partizans of Davis and Vance were elected over Holden, or Union men. We have no doubt but many loyal men voted against us, but it is a notorious fact that we did not get the vote of a dozen Davis or Vance men in the county.—And Vance men and original secessionists who came to us whining and begging, and for whom we got favors from the federal authorities during the first few months of the occupation of this city, were as active against us in the late election as they were agasnst Mr. Holden in the contest with Vance in 1864. And if Gov. Holden has opposition the same persons will do all in their power to defeat him. In some counties men whose petitions for pardon were pending, were allowed to vote, and in one instance, at least, we have the authority of federal officers for saying that there was open secession rejoicing on the streets at what those who indulged in it, called a Confederate victory.

We have no reflections to make upon any of our opponents in Wake. We performed what we conceived to be our duty, under the circumstances, and had professed Union men, whose support we had a right to expect, treated us with common justice, we would have been elected. It is well known that those who voted for us were the most ultra Union men in the county; and it is equally well known that all the former office-holders, pets, favorites and partizans of Davis and Vance voted against us. Intelligent gentlemen here, who know the combinations that were brought to bear against us, consider our vote a gratifying one and the result, under the conditions, rather a triumph. We shall endeavor hereafter, as heretofore, to discharge our duty as a loyal citizen and Union man, and we assure our friends in the North and at home that the result has never cost us a pang.

We regret that the proposition of Mr. Bynum, to insert a clause in the election ordinance removing the property qualification for members of the Legislature, was voted down. The vote ought to be recorded so that the people may know, hereafter, who of the delegates favor that odious distinction. We hope the same proposition, in some other shape, will be brought up again before the Convention adjourns.

EMIGRANTS TO BRAZIL.—A New York letter of Monday says:

"Brazil seems to be coming more and more into favor with a class of people who have got it into their heads that they can fight the battle of life better there than they can do at home. A few weeks since we noticed the departure of the steamship Montano with a number of gentlemen, representing some five hundred or six hundred families in Louisiana, Alabama and Mississippi, and professing to have $1,000,000 capital, with a view of securing a tract of land on the Amazon for a future settlement. On Saturday, another steamer, the Havana, took her departure for Rio Janeiro, and among her passengers were a number of emigres of the same class. It may be added, also, that the Havana takes out several military and naval officers of experience, who will enter the service of Don Pedro in his war with the Paraguayans."

THE STRENGTH OF THE FENIANS.—The Chicago Tribune is not, it appears, disposed to think the Fenians are likely to accomplish much. It gives the following as a fair estimate of their numerical strength in the United States:

"Chicago, 500; St. Louis, 500; Cincinnati, 500; Baltimore, 500; New York, 2,500; Cleaveland, 400; Detroit, 400; Boston, 300; Hartford, 250; New Haven, 250; Springfield, 100; Albany, 200; Philadelphia, 1,000. Pittsburg, 400. All other places, 2,000 Total, 10,300."

FACTS ABOUT OYSTERS.—A consumer of bivalves gives the following interesting facts concerning them:

"Each oyster can produce 1,200,000 eggs. Each young oyster is the hundred and twentieth of an inch in length, and about two millions may be packed within the dimensions of a cubic inch. About one-half of all the young oysters are eaten up by old fish. Oysters attain their majority in two years. The majority of those eaten by bivalvulous man, however, are only about one and a half years of age."

Lieut. Gen. Grant recently visited the tomb of President Lincoln, at Oak Ridge Cemetery, Springfield, Ill. The President's remains are still unburied, being in the reception house. Close to the coffin of the President is that of his little son, who also died at Washington. The father and son are to be united in death, and their dust is to mingle. The cemetery is described as being a scene of remarkable beauty, just what the President would have selected as the place of his last and long repose.

STATE ITEMS.

THE DAMAGES.—Summing up the damages of the disturbance, says the Wilmington Herald, between the police and negro soldiers on Tuesday night, it is found that there are two policemen wounded, a private watchman knocked down, and a little powder and ball exhausted, without any greater damage than shooting the end of a cow's tail off.

BROKE JAIL.—We learn that Stephen C. Lee, citizen, who was recently tried before the Military Commission, in session in this city, has escaped from jail.—Salisbury Banner of Friday.

WATCH OUT.—A young man of this city was arrested and sentenced to forty-eight hours imprisonment and a fine of $25 for using disloyal language.

We notice this to express our hope and belief that it is an isolated case of disloyalty.—Ibid.

THE INQUEST.—There was an error given in Tuesday's afternoon edition in the name of the man who died near Oldham's Mill, and over whose body the inquest was held. It should have been Wm. H. Thomas, instead of Wm. W Johnston.—It has since been learned that the man was a member of Capt. Ed. Mallett's company in the confederate service, and that he leaves a mother and other family relations in Johnston county. Before his death he reported to his physician that he had been robbed by some one while he was sick, of about twelve dollars in currency. Who would have thought that Wilmington could furnish a creature so vile as to be guilty of a crime of this character under such circumstances? But such is the fact.—Wil. Herald.

Alfred Lock, a negro, tried and condemned by a military commission at Salisbury, was hung last Friday. He was to have been executed in August, but made his escape and was afterwards re-captured.

DEATH OF JOAB HIATT.—We announce the death of Gen. Joab Hiatt, which occurred at his residence in Greensboro, on Wednesday morning last. Gen. Hiatt was well known throughout the State, and his death will be a source of sorrow to a large circle of friends and relatives.

COTTON BURNED.—A car load of cotton caught fire on the Wilmington & Manchester railroad, on Wednesday last, about five miles west of Fair Bluff, and we regret to learn, was entirely consumed.—Some detention of the trains was consequently caused thereby, but the road was speedily cleared and repaired and the trains are now running regularly.—Wil. Journal of the 6th.

A freedman named Gaddy died in the streets of Wilmington last Wednesday night. Verdict of the jury—"died from disease unknown to the jury, hastened by exposure, neglect and want of attention."

The first number of the Dispatch, by Messrs. Barry & Bernard, is to be issued to-day.

New York oysters have made their appearance in Wilmington. Can't we get a few this way.

A man named Croger was shot and killed by negro troops near Newberry, S. C., on the 28d of last month. If the account given by the Newberry Herald be correct, it was an unjustifiable murder.

THE ATLANTIC AND N. C. RAILROAD.—The Goldsboro' News says:

We are pleased to learn that the A. & N. C. railroad will soon be turned over to the management of the President and Directors. The officers chosen by these, at their meeting in July, will give, we doubt not, universal satisfaction. Mr. Thomas, the new President of the road, is a man of undoubted ability and great energy, and his management of the road will prove a success. Of Mr. Harvey it is useless for us to speak in this community. He has shown himself, for four years past, eminently qualified to discharge the important position he now fills, and we venture to assert that no officer or employee of this, or any other road, will give more satisfaction to all with whom he comes in business contact.

It is unfortunate for the company that there has been so much delay in turning over the road.

A new locomotive intended for the use of the Wilmington and Weldon railroad, has arrived from Philadelphia, and will be put on the road immedately.

—Old Gen. Cass, who is "worth" some millions, has given $1,000 in aid of the erection of a military monument. He is 83 years old.

—The discovery that Dr. Barry, who died recently at Corfu, and who had occupied for the last fifty years a prominent position in the British army as assistant surgeon, and afterwards as medical director, and who had taken an active part in a dozen and more battles was a woman, continues to be the talk at all the military clubs of London. The fact has been authenticated by the highest medical authorities, and the successful concealment of Dr. Barry's sex seems to be more unaccountable, as the Dr. went, on several occasions, through the pangs of maternity.

—The camel-experiment is again to be tried on the plains by an "overland camel company." The camels are to be imported from Algeria, and will do some of the heavy transportation to our fellow-citizens in the wilds. They can travel on roads impracticable to wagons and in the mountain passes, as well as on the plains, and will be for years of immense utility. The camel is the semi-civilized method of transportation, and is but the harbinger of the railroads which will within the century cover our western land with a giant network.

—General Howard estimates that ten thousand freedmen have learned to read and write since the war.

HAUNTED.

One day I met my fate!
The woman whom I was fated to love
With a deep, undying and head-strong love!
I, who and laughed all such folly away
Through my life—I was doomed to have my day:
And my soul was slate.
Her's was the serpent's charm!
She won all hearts by a look or a smile;
And all were eager to die for her smile.
But the love that to her was offered up
She drank, like the wine from her jewelled cup;
Yet I felt no alarm.
Regal and cold as stone,
She laughed when I offered to her my love—
Laughed at my wild and idolatrous love.
Heartless and haughty, she went on her way;
But I was contented to bide my day,
For my will always won.
Even her will must bend!
I put the bethrothal ring on her hand—
A beautiful, grand, and passionate hand,
Restless and supple, and spotless as snow:
A hand that could prove a terrible foe,
Or, through her love a friend.
We were married one day!
I held by my pitiless love to her heart,
Her angry, untamed, and unloving heart!
But she fell down, white on the marble floor.
She who had never been quiet before
Was now quiet for aye.
I buried her by the sea!
I thought by the sea she would sleep the best;
A lonely place, but she loved it the best.
She lies in the sound of the song of the wave,
With the sea-gull shrieking above her grave,
Dead to all but to me.
To me she cannot die!
From that lonely grave she reaches her hand—
A fearful, avenging, and murderous hand.
Will it come some day, when the storm is rife,
And crush out my wasted and weary life,
Ere she quiet can lie?

SPECIAL NOTICES.

...is one thing ... just now. It is the FAMILY DYECOLORS of Howe & Stevens. Their use will save the necessity for purchasing many a garment, the more particularly among the ladies. For a very trifling expenditure old things may be made to look as good as new. These dyes include some thirty or more colors, are entirely reliable, and can be used with the smallest amount of trouble. The process is very simple, just as the result is very certain. They can be used on all sorts of fabrics, and when colored, will neither crack, stain, rub off, or fade. The demand for them ...

NEW SKIRT FOR 1865.
The Great Invention of the Age in Hoop Skirts.
J. W. BRADLEY'S NEW PATENT DUPLEX ELLIPTIC, (OR DOUBLE) SPRING SKIRT.
THIS INVENTION CONSISTS OF DUPLEX (OR two) Elliptic Pure Rolled Steel Springs, ingeniously braided tightly and firmly together, edge to edge, making the toughest, most flexible, elastic and durable Spring ever used. They seldom bend or break, like the Single Springs, and consequently preserve their perfect and beautiful shape more than twice as long as any Single Spring Skirt that ever has or can be made.
The wonderful flexibility and great comfort and pleasure to any Lady wearing the Duplex Elliptic Skirt will be experienced particularly in all crowded Assemblies, Operas, Carriages, Railroad Cars, Church Pews, Arm-Chairs, for Promenade and House Dress, as the Skirt can be folded when in use to occupy a small place as easily and conveniently as a Silk or Muslin Dress.
A Lady having Enjoyed the Pleasure, Comfort and Great Convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic Steel Spring Skirt for a single day will never afterwards willingly dispense with their use. For Children, Misses and Young Ladies they are superior to all other.
The Hoops are covered with 2 ply double twisted thread and will wear twice as long as the Single yarn covering which is used on all Single Steel Hoop Skirts. The three bottom rods on every Skirt are also Double Steel, and twice or double covered to prevent the covering from wearing off the rods when dragging down stairs, stone steps, &c., &c., which they are constantly subject to when in use.
All are made of the new and elegant Corded Tapes, and are the best quality in every part, giving to the wearer the most graceful and perfect shape possible, and are unquestionably the lightest, most desirable, comfortable and economical Skirt ever made.
WEST, BRADLEY & CARY, (late J. I. & J. O. West,) Proprietors of the Invention, and sole manufacturers, 97 Chambers and 79 & 81 Reade Streets, New York.
For sale in all first class stores in this City, and throughout the United States and Canada, Havana de Cuba, Mexico, South America and the West Indies.
Inquire for the Duplex Elliptic (or double) Spring Skirt. May 10-tf

TELEGRAPHIC.

ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORTS.

No Dispatches.

Up to the hour of going to press, half past ten o'clock, our usual telegraphic dispatches failed to come to hand.

THROUGH TO NORFOLK.—A letter to the associate editor of the Progress from Portsmouth, announces that the completion of the Seaboard and Roanoke railroad is being pushed forward with great energy. Our old friend, Mr. Jerome Pendleton, assures us that the iron for closing up the gaps between Portsmouth and Weldon has been bought, is being shipped up the road, and will be put down in a few weeks. Then Raleigh and Norfolk will be within twelve hours of each other.

—At Hillsboro', Ohio, last week, Maginnis, Democratic candidate for Lieut.-Governor, was making a speech, arguing the right of States to secede, and in reply to a question from Corporal Pike, said he regarded the Union soldiers who had been fighting in the South, as guilty of shedding innocent blood. Pike then said no man expressing such sentiments could speak from that stand, and started for him with his pistol in his hand. Maginnis drew a pistol and fired first, the ball hitting Pike on the forehead, a glancing stroke, inflicting a slight wound. Pike rushed close upon the speaker and attempted to shoot him through the heart, but Maginnis knocked the pistol down, and the ball ripped the flesh of his abdomen, but failed to reach a vital part. The belligerents then came together and used their pistols as bludgeons. In this encounter, Maginnis got very thoroughly whipped. Pike is the author of a book of four hundred pages, called "The Adventures of a Ranger and Scout."

—It is reported that Gen. Joe Johnston will be made President of a railroad in Alabama.

—A manuscript composition for the piano forte, by Beethoven, has just been discovered at Munich. It bears at its head the words, "For Eliza; April 27th."

—The Mexican army on the Rio Grande has been reinforced by 20,000 men. Whence they came we know not—and we feel more curiosity to know whither they are going.

—The New Orleans Picayune says General Beauregard "is now a sedate, quiet citizen and civilian in his native city, who has no idea of leaving his country, and will remain here to meet all the responsibilities and discharge all the duties of a citizen."

—A life of Mrs. Surratt is being written by Mr. Aiken, one of her counsel.

A negro baby was born in Petersburg, Va., the other day, with the exact impression of a two cent U. S. revenue stamp on her forehead.—Litchfield Enquirer.

The mother must have been chased by a Government tax collector.—New Haven Register.

—During the past two weeks the Treasury Department destroyed nearly $410,000 worth of redeemed mutilated currency.

—A National Bank has been chartered at Atlanta, Ga.

—On dit, that Mr. A. H. Stephens is to be released and sent to Georgia, where he will be employed, along with other prominent rebels, in the work of reconstruction.

—The government of Spain is considering a proposition to make the ports of Cuba free to the ships and commerce of the world. Such a measure would be of great advantage to the trade and industry of the United States.

—'Tis reported that President Johnson and Secretary Seward are thinking seriously of acknowledging the Imperial government of Mexico.

—Geffrard, it is thought, will "go under" in Hayti, and according to some authorities it is there that he deserves to go.

—Unsuccessful efforts have been made in Richmond to secure a revocation of the military order suppressing The Commercial Bulletin.

AUCTION SALES
GOVERNMENT PROPERTY
IN THE
STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

AUCTION SALES OF HORSES, MULES, ARMY Wagons, Spring Wagons, Harness and other government property will take place from time to time at the principal cities and towns in the State.

These sales will afford farmers excellent opportunities to stock their farms with any class of animals they desire to purchase.

Each sale will embrace a variety of stock, including riding and draught Horses and Mules of every class. A few very large Mules, thoroughly broken to harness, and in fine condition, will be offered at each sale.

The attention of capitalists and dealers in stock is particularly called to the opportunities here presented for profitable investment. Stock purchased for cash at these sales may be sold on credit, with ample security, at a large advance, to farmers who are depending on their growing crops for means to purchase—or may be retained, and sold for cash at a large profit after the crops have matured.

Terms CASH on day of sale.

Sales will continue during the months of September and October will be advertised in this column as soon as dates are fixed.
